APPLICATION FOR DENTIST-FQHC PROVISIONAL LICENSURE INSTRUCTION SHEET

When to File

This form is a combined application for both a Dentist-FQHC Provisional license and Dentist license. Submit this application only if you are a dentist who is contracted to practice at a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) in Delaware. The Dentist-FQHC Provisional license allows you to practice dentistry in Delaware

- before you have passed the three examinations required for full Dentist licensure
- only at the FQHC named on the license
- only under the general supervision of a Delaware-licensed dentist

Information about the Dentist-FQHC Provisional License

To receive a Dentist-FQHC Provisional license, you must meet all requirements for full Dentist licensure except the examination requirements. Dentist-FQHC Provisional license is valid for two years from the date it is issued. It is not renewable. During the two-year period...

- You are allowed practice dentistry under the general supervision of a Delaware-licensed dentist at a FQHC.
- You must take the Delaware Practical Board Examination at least one time during the first year after your Dentist-FQHC Provisional license is issued.
- You must pass all three examinations required for full Dentist licensure – the Delaware Practical Board Examination, the Delaware Jurisprudence Examination, and the National Board Examination – before your Dentist-FQHC Provisional license expires. For more information about the exams, see the next section.

If you complete all examination requirements in the prescribed two-year period, the Dentist-FQHC Provisional license will transition into a Dentist license.

More Information about Required Examinations

All applicants for Dentist licensure, regardless of years in practice, are required to pass the Delaware Practical Board Examination in dentistry and the Delaware Jurisprudence Examination in addition to the National Board Examination.

- Delaware Practical Board Examination – You must take this at least once during the first year that your Dentist-FQHC Provisional license is active and you must pass it before your Dentist-FQHC Provisional license expires.
 - This exam is offered twice a year, at the beginning of January and June. The registration deadlines are December 1 for the January exam and May 1 for the June exam. To register for the exam, you must pay the examination fee by the deadline. The exam is limited to 18 candidates on each date. For more information about the exam, click Practical Board Examination.
 - When the registration deadline passes, the Board office will mail an examination packet to registered candidates. If you submit your exam fee after the deadline, you must include a late fee and you will receive an examination packet only after the Board office confirms availability of a seat.
- Delaware Jurisprudence Examination – You must pass the Jurisprudence Examination before your Dentist-FQHC Provisional license expires. It is an “open-book,” multiple-choice test based on the Delaware Code and the Board’s Rules and Regulations. The version for Dentists has 30 questions.

- National Board Examination – You must arrange for the Board office to receive the score report, sent directly to the Board office from the Joint Commission on National Dental Examinations, before your Dentist-FQHC Provisional license expires.

Requirements for All Applicants

As the applicant, it is your responsibility – not the responsibility of the FQHC – to arrange for the Board to receive the documents listed below. - If you have never been issued a U.S. Social Security Number (SSN), submit a Request for Exemption from Social Security Number Requirement.
The Privacy Act of 1974, Section 7, requires the following information to be given to all applicants: Applicants for any Delaware professional or occupational license, permit, registration or certificate (other than Gaming permits) are required to provide a U.S. SSN (29 Del. C. §8735(m)). The Division of Professional Regulation uses the SSN primarily to verify identity and safeguard personal information. It may also be used to enforce child support obligation (13 Del. C. §2216) and for other lawful purposes.

Requirements After Dentist-FQHC Provisional License Issuance

During the two-year period that your Dentist-FQHC Provisional License is valid, you must prove that you meet the examination requirements for a Delaware Dentist license. The Board may deny you full Dentist licensure if you fail to meet these requirements.

You will be admitted to the exam only if a seat is still available. If no seat is available, you will forfeit both the Examination fee and Late fee that you paid. To register for the next exam date, you must pay the Examination fee again; you cannot transfer it to a later examination date.
- Submit your completed, signed and notarized Jurisprudence Examination for Dentist Candidates.
- Arrange for the Board office to receive your National Board Examination score report, sent directly from the Joint Commission on National Dental Examinations to the Board office. See Score Report Request.

NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for a job or license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification¹ that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the job, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.²

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks>.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
